October 30

Redemptorist owned Liguori Publications announces that they have published pamphlets on all six of the African American candidates on the path to sainthood in their “An Hour With...” series. These engaging pamphlets offers a spiritual biography of the holy person, brief meditations highlighting their unique spirituality, and devotional prayers. These devout African American Catholics will be included in the distribution package of every Catholic parish throughout the country and beyond that has a Liguori pamphlet rack! You can order these pamphlets individually ($1.50) or as a set for your parishes through Liguori Publications - www.liguori.org

An Hour With ... African American Candidates

In August, all those directing the canonization causes for the six African American candidates met in New Orleans at the invitation of Bishop Joseph Perry, Auxiliary Bishop of the Archdiocese of Chicago. The primary purpose of the meeting was the establishment of the Center for the Saints at Xavier University of Louisiana. At the meeting, Maurice Nutt, CSSR, Jackson Diocese Liaison of the Sister Thea Bowman Cause, mentioned that Liguori already published pamphlets in its “An Hour With ...” series on three of the candidates, and that the other three were in production (Mother Henriette Delille, Mother Mary Lange, Julia Greeley). “This announcement caused great excitement and appreciation for Liguori Publications,” writes Maurice. “Again, thank you for doing this for the Black Catholic community. Liguori Publications will be the only publishing company giving attention to each African American candidate. Bravo!”
